

SMCCCD Faculty, Staff and Students: REGISTER NOW!

September 10th, Noon-3pm

AFT 1493 TEACH-IN to address SYSTEMIC INEQUITIES

Social Justice Unionism in Practice:

From Part-Time Parity to Anti-Oppression Organizing

Join us on Thursday, September 10, 2020 as we build awareness and activism around labor and social justice issues, empower our students, staff and faculty members to demand justice for our part-time faculty who deserve equal pay for equal work and organize for racial and gender justice in our union, our campuses and our communities!

Faculty: Bring your class in lieu of your regular class meeting (relate it to class content)

OR offer credit for attendance;

support your part-time colleagues in their struggle to earn a living wage and equitable working conditions.

Students: Support friends, classmates & instructors as they speak out about injustice. Learn how other young workers in our communities are organizing for change.

Schedule:

12:00-12:30 Plenary

12:35-2:00 Concurrent Sessions:

- Session 1: Part-Time Compensation as a systemic social inequity / the two-tier system
- Session 2: Organizing in our workplaces and communities NOW!
- Session 3: Racial & Gender Justice in the union, our campuses & our communities

2:00-3:00 Adjunct Faculty: Lived experiences and sharing stories in a safe space just for adjunct faculty
