*NOTE: (Cesar Chavez Day is NOT state mandated)

Spring recess MUST always be held during the week that Cesar Chavez Day is observed in order to maintain the minimum instructional hours required by the state. If it is observed outside of a spring recess, the number of instructional days is to be Instructional hours required by the state. If it is observed outside of spring recess, the number of instructional weeks is reduced which does not allow for the minimum number of instructional hours required for day classes. Also, AFT typically prefers during the last week of March so that it falls closer to the middle of the term.
